Best of Devon & Cornwall 2010

Day 1 - London – Runnymede – Salisbury – Stonehenge – Bideford

First we see the gardens at Hampton Court Palace before driving to Runnymede where the Magna Carta was signed. We continue to Salisbury to view its magnificent cathedral. Then to Salisbury Plain to visit the mysterious monoliths of Stonehenge. Finally a drive past Exmoor marks our arrival in the West Country where we head to Bideford. Here we enjoy a Welcome Drink and dinner. (Dinner)

Hotel: Durrant House

Day 2 - Bideford – Clovelly – Tintagel – Plymouth (2 nights)

First to the steeply cobbled village of Clovelly with its loveable donkeys and picturesque cottages. Then into Cornwall and via Boscastle to Tintagel for views of the ruined castle. Then we enjoy a Devonshire cream tea and make our way to the historic naval port of Plymouth. Here we see the Mayflower steps from which the Pilgrim Fathers set sail to America. (Full breakfast)

Hotel: Jurys Inn

Day 3 - Cornish excursion

We drive along the rugged Cornish coastline past smugglers' coves and quaint fishing villages to Land's End, the most westerly point of the British mainland. Then to St. Ives, the famous artists' colony, and British surfing paradise. Later we have views of St. Michael's Mount near Penzance before a drive across Bodmin Moor. During the day our Tour Director will also show us a Hidden Treasure before we return to our hotel. (Full breakfast)

Day 4 - Plymouth – Bath – Bristol

We travel through Dartmoor National Park to Glastonbury and visit the abbey ruins and see the legendary burial site of King Arthur. Then we see Cheddar Gorge before continuing to Bath where we visit the Roman Baths. We overnight in maritime Bristol where we enjoy a Farewell Dinner tonight. (Full breakfast / Farewell dinner)

Hotel: Radisson Blu

Day 5 - Bristol – Avebury – Windsor – London

First we see Avebury, Britain's most ancient stone circle. Then we stop to visit the Royal town of Windsor where the castle is the favourite week-end home for the Royal Family, before returning to London and bidding farewell to our Tour Director and fellow travellers as our tour comes to an end. (Full breakfast)
