Taste of Britain 2010

Highlights:

- Chester
- Liverpool
- Grasmere
- Gretna Green
- Edinburgh
- Jedburgh
- Hadrian's Wall
- York
- Coventry
- Stratford-upon-Avon

Go beyond Buckingham Palace and dig deeper into Britain's past. We reveal medieval walled cities, the scenery that inspired Wordsworth's poetry, and the ornate York Minster. We visit the apartments inside Edinburgh's castle plus Shakespeare's hometown.

Taste of Britain 2010

Day 1 - London – Liverpool

Greetings from your Tour Director as we travel northwards from London into Staffordshire, known as the Potteries, because it is a centre for ceramic pottery manufacture. Later we arrive in the medieval city of Chester where we see the Rows before continuing to our hotel in Liverpool where we enjoy a welcome drink and dinner with our Tour Director and fellow travellers. (Dinner)

Hotel: Jurys Inn

Day 2 - Liverpool – Edinburgh

After a city orientation tour we head into the beautiful Lake District with views of Lake Windermere. Then on to the Scottish border and Gretna Green, refuge of eloping couples! Soon we arrive in the Scottish capital, Edinburgh. (Full breakfast)

Hotel: Jurys Inn

Day 3 - Edinburgh – Darlington

After our guided city tour we cross the borderlands and see the ruins of Jedburgh Abbey. Then through the Northumberland National Park to see remnants of Hadrian's Wall before we arrive in our hotel where we enjoy a Farewell Dinner tonight. (Full breakfast / Farewell Dinner)

Hotel: Blackwell Grange

Day 4 - Darlington – London

This morning we travel to the Viking city of York where a walking tour with our Tour Director shows us the 'Shambles', a meandering, narrow medieval street, and a fascinating Hidden Treasure! Then on to Coventry where we see the two cathedrals. Finally we
